

Treasury Department,

Enc..

Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. C.,

June 7, 1895.

Herman Kretz, Esq.,

Supt. U.S. Mint,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

I enclose herewith a copper coin which I will thank you to submit to the curator of your mint, and to report what coin it is, returning the same with your report.

Respectfully yours,

R. B. Preston
Director of the Mint.

10 Kopecks of Empress
Elizabeth of Russia.

Obv. The monogram of the Empress. Incl date 1759.

Rev. The Russian double-headed eagle.

The coin has the appearance of being of being struck over another coin.

M.C.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 189

Enc.

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
June 7, 1895

Herman Kretz, Esq.,
Supt. U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

I enclose herewith a copper coin which I will thank you to submit to the curator of your mint, and to report what coin it is, returning the same with your report.

Respectfully yours,
R.E. Preston
Director of the Mint.

[Enclosed note:]

10 Kopecks of Empress Elizabeth of Russia.
Obv. The Monogram of the Empress, and date 1759.
Rev. The Russian double-headed eagle.
The coin has the appearance of being of being struck over another coin.

M.C.